THIS CAUSE having come before the Court on the motion of Uzi Marom, the above-captioned debtor (the “Debtor”), for entry of an order (i) re-opening the Debtor’s closed Chapter 7 case pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 350(b), (ii) enforcing the discharge injunction and holding Tamar Cohen (“Cohen”) and the Estate of Gavriel Burstein (the “Burstein Estate”) in civil contempt for violation of the discharge injunction and for related relief pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 524(a) and 105(a), and (iii) for such other relief as the Court deems just and proper (the “Motion”); and the Court having considered the Certification of Uzi Marom (the “Marom Certification”) and Application submitted in support of the Motion, objections thereto, if any, and oral argument, if any; and it appearing that Cohen and the Burstein Estate were given proper notice of the filing of the Chapter 7 Case; and it further appearing that the Debtor obtained his discharge in bankruptcy on July 29, 2010, and that, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 524(a), the State Court Judgment (as that term is defined in the Marom Certification) was voided; and it further appearing that neither Cohen nor the Burstein Estate’s predecessor-in-interest, Gavriel Burstein, filed a complaint objecting to the dischargeability of their debts, and therefore, those debts were included in the Debtor’s discharge; and it further appearing that Cohen and the Burstein Estate have willfully violated, and continue to willfully violate, the discharge injunction preventing them from, among other things, commencing or continuing any action to collect or recover their discharged debts
